SAFE CRACKER LOOTS STORE

Gets Away With Stamps, Valuables And Money.

Some time after midnight Saturday last thieves gained entrance to the store of Ringressy and Rowe at Fetters Springs where is also situated the post office and robbed the big safe on the premises, the loot taken being valued at more than $500. The bold robbery was committed shortly after Mrs. Ringressy had left the store where she had gone at 12:15 to lock up some valuables and at that hour everything seemed secure although the safe-cracker watched the post-mistress open and close the safe and go to her home before starting his bold operations. He jimmied a window on the south side of the store and went to work immediately on the safe through which he drilled a neat hole in true professional style. After performing that operation he evidently worked the combination with a wire and gained entrance to the compartment where the thrift and postage stamps were kept and of these he took about $200 worth. He then discovered the private property of Bob Rowe, $200 in cash and jewelry, among the latter a handsome watch fob presented to Rowe by the people of Victoria, B. C. for winning the hockey championship for that city. The burglar also took some money and handsome jewelry belonging to Mrs. Ringressy.

For some reason the inner strong box was not touched although it contained more valuable contents than was secured by the thief.

After completeing the job on the safe, the intruder helped himself to prizes of 2 punch boards, cigarettes, cologne, silk stockings, chewing gum and other trivial things. He made his get-away out of the back door and not until Mrs. Ringressy went to dispatch the morning mail was the robbery discovered. Officers were immediately notified and began scouring the country for the thief. A new 3 lb. hammer which was found on the safe and a pass key were the only bits of evidence which the intruder left behind him, but they failed to throw any light on the identity of the culprit.

Mr. Ringressy who is now in France, a lieutenant in the U. S. Army, was robbed a few years ago and suspicion pointed at that time to an old offender who was in the valley at the time and whose presence here has been noted again recently. However no arrests have as yet been made although both local officers and federal detectives are at work on the case.

SONOMA APPLES BEING SHIPPED FAR AND WIDE

The first straight car of Sonoma Valley apples was shipped Thursday night from Batto's Spur, Vineburg by the Sonoma Valley Apple Growers Association. The lot which comprised 800 boxes of Gravensteins was consigned to Portland, Oregon. It was magnificient fruit. The earliest shipment of Gravenstein apples was made from the Rochat orchard near town. A Sacramento concern bought the fruit and shipped direct to Montana.

Mrs. L. Quartaroli of the El Dorado gave a farewell party and banquet Saturday night to her brother, Ernest Baletti who went to Camp Lewis with the last contingent of soldier boys. A fine time was enjoyed by the family and their friends

Miss Minnie Cook will spend her vacation at Pacific Grove.

Mr. and Mrs. Adam Adler took a trip to San Francisco recently where Mrs. Adler consulted an oculist and business was combined with the pleasure of theatres, dinners and visits to old friends.

Mrs. Hugo Kuster was in town last Saturday from her ranch above Glen Ellen.

Mr. and Mrs. Pera and family of Antioch have been over on a visit to relatives.

Mrs. Ed. Wilson and baby boy of San Francisco have been enjoying a visit at the Adler home. Mrs. Wilson was formerly Miss Martha Landgraf.

O. Daley has been up from San Francisco on a visit to Sonoma friends

Picci's Fruit and Vegetable store announces that there will be no more deliveries to customers after this week.

EL VERANO MAN FOUND DEAD

Timothy O'Halloran Dies Alone and Is Discovered Three Days Later Coroner Investigates. Inquest Reveals Natural Death.

Something of a sensation was created here last Saturday with the news of the death of Timothy O'Halloran, a well known El Verano character whose decomposed body was found Friday night in his cabin where he had succumbed three days previous. The old man died alone and was discovered by Kate O'Brien Carriger upon her return from Santa Rosa Friday night.

Just one week previous, O'Halloran had engaged in an altercation with Deputy Sheriff Murray and interfered in an arrest being made by that official. He became quite abusive, attacked Murray and the latter knocked him down. In falling his head struck the curb in front of the Bellevue Hotel where the incident occured. He bled profusely and his eye was badly blackened but after receiving first aid treatment, he continued to be abusive in his talk so was brought to town and locked up. He remained in jail two days and upon being released, promised to appear before Judge Small on the following Friday. He did not put in an appearance and that night his cousin, Kate Carriger, returning from a trip to Santa Rosa and seeing his horse tied outside, went in and found him dead in bed. She gave the alarm and Coroner Phillips was notified as was also the District Attorney's office.

Deputy Sheriff Murray courted the fullest investigation into the cause of the old man's death on account of the incident which preceded his demise. Both Doctors Hays and Thomson held a post mortem over the remains, examined the skull and brain but found no evidence of either fracture or cerebral hemorrhage. Death resulted so they testified at the Coroner's inquest Saturday afternoon, from natural causes—heart trouble. The Coroner's jury therefore brought in a verdict of natural death. Witnesses testified at the inquest in regard to the altercation at the Bellevue between O'Halloran and Murray and everything in connection with that circumstance was thoroughly investigated. No connection however was established between the fall and O'Halloran's death. He was about 73 years of age, had been a hard drinker and some time previous had been under treatment by one of the physicians who conducted the autopsy.

O'Halloran was a former policeman and politician in Chicago and came to Sonoma Valley some years ago to act as caretaker on a ranch. Later he took up his residence with his second cousin, Kate O'Brien Carriger in El Verano.

His old white horse stood hitched in front of the house where he lay dead for three days and was still there when Kate Carriger returned and made the grewsome discovery of O'Halloran's death.

O'Halloran always kept money enough on hand to bury him and after his death $200 was found in a wallet under his bed. He was buried in the O'Brien plot.

The shameful attack on Coroner Phillips made in another paper was done for political purposes and entirely uncalled for. The writer of the scurrilous and insulting article was not present at the inquest but as usual was the mouthpiece for those who have political axes to grind or to whose interest the ruination of Fetters springs would be a satisfaction.

An inquest is a public hearing and Mrs. Fetters had a right to be there. She is the owner of the Bellevue hotel in front of which the altercation between deceased and Murray took place. She was interested in the proceedings and at no time was her conduct such that she should have been ejected. Coroner Phillips conducted the inquest without bias and to the entire satisfaction of the jury, although one of the principals in the case has been doing politics for Phillips opponent since the outset of the campaign. The malicious attack has rallied Coroner Phillips friends to him from all over the valley.

WEDDING BELLS FOR YOUNG COUPLE

Miss Dobbel Becomes Bride of Harold Coops Last Saturday At Santa Rosa.

Wedding bells rang out last Saturday morning for pretty Dorothy Dobbel and Harold Coops, one of Sonoma valley's leading young orchardists. The marriage was solemnized at the parsonage of the M. E. church in Santa Rosa at 11 a. m.. It was a quiet wedding in accordance with war time social form and as Mr. Coop's brother is in France, the parents of the bride, Mr. and Mrs. F. .W. Dobbel, the parents of the groom, Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Coops, Mrs. H. Johannsen, Miss Virginia Picetti and the contracting parties were the only ones present. The bride looked very beautiful in a handsome taupe colored silk tailleur suit with a large picture hat of transparent lace trimmed with gold wreath which suited her type of blonde beauty perfectly. She carried a bouquet of roses and was attended by Miss Virginia Picetti whose striking brunette type was in becoming contrast to the golden haired bride. Mr. Coops was unattended but as the vows were exchanged and the simple but impressive ceremony of the Methodist denomination was pronounced uniting the young people, it was a most beautiful service.

After the heartiest of congratulations and best wishes, the bridal party motored to the Overton hotel where the bride's parents had arranged for a fine wedding breakfast in one of the private dining rooms which was charmingly decorated for the occasion, the table favors being orange blossoms.

Following the wedding breakfast, the bride made ready for the motor trip to the Yosemite, whither the young couple departed on their honeymoon.

They were the recipients of many exceedingly handsome wedding presents and several nice checks, among the latter, one for $100 from their soldier brother in France. Mr. Coop's gift to his bride was a diamond brooch—a solitaire set in a flower of exquisite workmanship. Other gifts included a library table, oil paintings, cut glass, solid silver and linen. Upon their return Mr. and Mrs. Coops will reside on the fine orchard on the Napa road where the substantial stone house has been remodeled and will be beautifully furnished for the newlyweds.

The Index-Tribune unites with many friends in wishing the young couple a long and happy married life.

PHILLIPS FOR CORONER OF SONOMA COUNTY

Doctor Frank Phillips whose record as coroner of Sonoma county has been noted for his untiring and successful efforts at identifying unknown dead and sifting cases of every character at the many inquests he has conducted during his incumbency is a candidate for reelection and his big majority of last election will not only be repeated but the doctor's many friends predict that he will go over the top.

Coroner Phillips is a man whose energy, square dealing and personality have been a great factor in his success. Not only has he shown great respect for the dead but he has shown the greatest interest and courtesy to those attendant upon deceased persons. He traced the missing relatives of many a friendless body of which he was custodian for the county and spared no efforts to indentify remains where apparently the greatest mystery enveloped suicides or tragic death. Coroner Phillips is a business man and conducts his office along business lines never forgetting that the taxpayer is the man who pays the bills and whose rights are to be respected at all times.

JUDGE DECIDES AGAINST RUSSELL

Decision In Famous Case of Alleged Fraud Is Surprise to Friends of Mr. and Mrs. Russell.

Judge Thos. Denny rendered a decision in the famous case of Russell vs Long this week and he decided against Russell. The case was the outcome of a trade wherein Mr. and Mrs. Russell turned over their property here in Sonoma for a ranch in Michigan which they allege was misrepresented to them by a minister, Rev. Samuel Long.

When they went back there and saw the place, they immediately started suit to recover their Sonoma property and in the complaint filed, alleged that they had been the victims of a fraudulent transaction, that the house and water supply were both grossly misrepresented, the house being little more than a sheep shed.

The case has been pending for more than a year and when at last it came to trial both Mr. Russell and his wife journeyed here from Michigan to try and get justice. There was a hearing, the Russells testified and witnesses were called. Judge Denny finally had the case submitted on briefs and took the matter under advisement. His decision this week came as a distinct suprise to Russell's many friends.

Both Mr. and Mrs. Russell returned east some weeks ago. They have never lived on the place they traded for.

SONOMA BOY AMONG SAVED ON SAN DIEGO

New York, July 20, 1918.

G. H. Stillings,

El Verano, Cal.

Am home with Ralph safe and sound without scratches or bruises. Was in water three hours and forty minutes, so had a good bath. Will write to-morrow and tell you of adventures.

Lloyd Stillings.

The above telegram was received by G. H. Stillings, of the Adam Adler Lumber Company, from his, who was among the California boys saved from the U. S. S. San Diego. Lloyd and his brother, Ralph, were working at Mare Island when war was declared against Germany. Both brothers enlisted the same day. Lloyd being ordered to the San Diego shortly before she left for the east coast. Being a fireman on the San Diego it is quite proable that Stillings was on duty in the boiler room at the time of the sinking.

Ralph Stillings is doing guard duty on a U. S. receiving ship in New York harbor where he was sent after suffering slight deafness and being in the hospital. Previous to this he made nine trips with convoys across the Atlantic. Since coming back to New York he has taken an apartment there and welcomed his brother Lloyd and gave him every comfort following the disaster to the San Diego.

In the list of graduates of the Grammar Schools of Sonoma County, the Watmaugh District was omitted. Two girls, Vivian Douglas and Novelle Stoughton graduated from this school.

Jack Picetti is back at the big Picetti ranch since the departure of his brother for the army and is being warmly greeted by his many friends.

Mr. and Mrs. P. .C Johnson of Imperial valley motored up this week to spend a week or two with their old friends Mr. and Mrs. L. C. Cordill. About 8 years ago the Johnsons who were then employed at the State Home at Eldridge, bought 40 acres of land in the Imperial valley. They have been most successful in alfalfa and stock raising and are now very prosperous.

NATIVE DAUGHTERS INSTALL OFFICERS

Fair Californians Have Flourishing Parlor in Sonoma

The Native Daughters Parlor of Sonoma which is one of the active and flourishing organizations in the State installed the new offcers for 1918 last Monday night in the presence of about 40 members and visiting officials. District Deputy Veda Vollers and several visitors from San Rafael were in attendance.

The officers installed were as follows

The Past President, Miss Myrtle Hardy, was presented with a handsome Jade ring. The District Deputy was the recipient of a pair of pillow cases handsomely embroidered by Mrs. Olga Campbell. Mrs. Emma Brereton who was a delegate to the Grand Parlor at Santa Cruz read an interesting report of the session..

The evening terminated with a banquet, the Hooverized menu being simply delicious and no Hoover limit on speechmaking or repartee. Shasta daisies, feathery greens and hydrangea made attractive decorations.

MARCUS (MIKE) FLOHR IS A CANDIDATE FOR CORONER

Petaluma has a candidate for coroner, Chief Flohr, of the police department who held office three terms and was elected chief twice without opposition. Mr. Flohr was born and raised in our neighboring city and was a saddle maker before entering public life. He also worked for the government on dredging operations for some time. A married man with four nice children Mike Flohr is a substantial citizen and a tax payer. He frankly admits he wants to be Coroner to better his position, and pledges that he will conduct the office in a conscientious and careful manner if elected by the people of this county. See Mr. Flohr's political announcement in another column.

Miss Annie Pemberton who some time ago broke both arms in a fall from a ladder now has the injured members out of the cast and is improving rapidly.

Picking A Governor

"CONFUSION WORSE CONFOUNDED"! about expresses it when properly punctuated—the impression that the array of gubernatorial candidates make upon the average voter who is fairly bewildered by the number of entries in the race and the apparent "class" of all the candidates, judging from their press agent encomiums. The ordinary citizen, despite his clamor for the direct primary system, must see the folly of it and also appreciate the expense of it, for those who are eliminated at the primaries are out of pocket, some of them pretty badly pinched by the going and its attendant campaign.

Most of us would probably admit that we would a great deal rather a convention had knocked off the heads of the also rans in the beginning and left the live ones (just a couple) for us to study and get to know during the few months preceding the election. The vote cast at the primaries is not a real intellegent vote for the public is too bewildered under the present arrangement.

There really is something pretty well defined about Stephens candidacy. He placarded himself "dry" from the outset and will get a block of votes in the South and an intentional turn down in theNorth where our grape and hop industries preclude him as a desirable candidate.

Hayes of San Jose looks good on a quarter card and for campaign purposes is not bone dry. He has a local following but is not making a clean-cut or spectacular enough canvass to give the public any definate impression of his superior qualifications for governor of California. We are a little hazy on Hayes.

Woolwine of Southern California has a platform that is a peach and his sentiments almost belie the fact that he lives in the south and is a Democratic war horse. He is really making a bid for the Democratic vote on the strength of backing up our present national administration. He has courage enough to admit that California is commission cursed and the cost of state government needs fixing badly.

James Rolph Jr., a big and successful business man of a big and successful city is of course well known to all residing in this part of California. The fact that he is a business man instead of a lawyer, is a lot in his favor according to our notion. If elected, he would put California on a different basis than would any lawyer. He has come in for some criticism for truckling to labor during recent strikes but let us hope that it was for campaign purposes even that far back and that the element which sympathizes with the direct action plan of precipitating their ideas will not have any strings on the man who seeks the endorsement of the people of this state for governor.

Charles M. Fickert has the confidence of the public when it comes to standing his ground with agitators and those who threaten the stability of business and society. His identification with the prosecution of the bomb cases has given him a decided character. We admire his temerity and patriotism in seeking to punish the perpetrators of the dastardly Preparedness Day outrage but he never could conciliate the breach between labor and capital but would rather tend to keep internal affairs fomented because of the extreme stand he has been forced to take.

As to Heney, we can only conceive his administration to be one cyclone or rampage, judging by past performances and they are a sort of expensive brand of whirl-wind too. As to Messrs McGee and Bordwell and other gubernatorial timber we confess the need of enlightenment and when it is all said and done, we can only hope that men who can best represent California, real Californian in spirit, may be honored with a big enough vote to remain on the ballot in November.

We are fighting our way through the fastnesses and oratorical barrage of an inflicted arrangement known as the primary period but will probably emerge with some triumphant scalp held aloft and shout en-masse "look who's here" and be proud of the power confered on us, that of having directly nominated the best and most desirable men seeking the honor of being governor of the State of California. Perhaps we will each year develop a more discriminating sense until at last it will become second nature for us to sub-consciously chose the right man no matter how many candidates are in the running, then shall the point of view of the direct primary system originator be vindicated and all registered voters be able to Hooverize on gray matter during the dog days of pre-election times.

One Necessity Of War Time

THERE WAS A TIME when business firms generally advertised the quality of the service accorded their patrons. Service, good service was a trade mark which brought and held business but since the war and the deflection of the ranks of the working force of the country and the shaking up of commercial conditions in general, that day is past and the public not only must realize it but must accept it with good grace. By being lenient and accepting the new order of things, they will be doing a good service for when people stop to think, they will realize that business concerns which have released their help to do war work whether fighting or ship building, have thrown that much more strength and efficiency to Uncle Sam, and he comes first, for the business he is doing is far more important, more vital than anything else in the world right now.

The business concern which strains every sinew to please an exacting public is shouldering more than it should, for the public must by degrees accept new conditions and realize that everything else is on a siding while government specials have the right of way. Some of the service formerly expected of firms has been directly shifted to the public without explanation or preliminaries for necessity of it was evident and it has worked exceedingly well, for instance in the "cash and carry" idea which straightway eliminated much book keeping, bill collecting and delivery.

The general public must help bear the burden of the disturbed condi-

THE PRESS DEMOCRAT says "stay with the Rominger bill" and advises everyone to pay no heed to the request of the "drys" who want Sonoma county drys to telegraph their approval of prohibition to Washington. Stay with the Rominger bill bah! The drys recognize no difference between wine and other intoxicants—a compromise with those people is an impossibility.

When the Press Democrat editor, Senator Slater, went in for it he ought to have known that by throwing his vote to the Rominger bill he only strengthened the drys in their encroaching, ultimate design to ruin the grape industry. Prohibition will continue to make inroads just as long as some newspapers and legislators are deluded into believing that the "drys" are reasonable or that there is any possibility of compromising with them. The wets will concede, will forego their opinion, will modify and act reasonable, but to expect the drys to accept the Rominger bill or any thing that is not bone dry is bone head figuring.

VOTE FOR GEO. W. HOYLE FOR DISTRICT ATTORNEY

George W. Hoyle, present District Attorney of Sonoma County, formally announces his candidacy for reelection to the important office which he has filled with marked ability and credit since the election of his chief, Clarence F. Lea to Congress. Mr. Hoyle had been assistant district attorney and following the honor confered upon Mr. Lea by the voters of this congressional district, the Supervisors unanimously tendered the office to him. Mr. Hoyle has been in the district attorney's office for ten years and came from Cloverdale to take up the important public work which he has carried on so successfully.

He is a public prosecutor who does his duty without fear or favor and the legal business of Sonoma County is handled in a manner which has called forth the greatest commendation during his incumbency. Since the United States has been in the war, much work has piled up in the district attorney's office but Mr. Hoyle has handled it with expediency and entire satisfaction. He is a stalwart patriot and has run down and stamped out quietly and effectively whatever disloyalty has appeared in our midst. He has carefully sifted cases of every character called to his attention and handled each one with the interest of Sonoma County ever at heart both from the standpoint of the well being of this section, the upholding to the highest standards and at the least possible expense to the County. He has shown excellent judgment and his office has made a record for economy and sound procedure.

The people from Cloverdale to our own "Valley of the Moon" realize that the district attorney's office is in pretty good hands and there is no doubt but that Mr. Hoyle will be re-elected by a handsome majority.

On Mr. Hoyle's working staff are two wide awake and popular deputies J. W. Ford and Wallace Ware who assist in maintaining the high efficient of the office and are ever alert to handle the multitudinous duties which fall to the District Attorney at all seasons of the year. Sonoma County is fortunate indeed to have so important an office as the district attorney's in such good hands.

J. G. (Jack) Woodward has made the formal announcement of his candidacy for the office of Tax Collector of Sonoma county. Mr. Woodward at present holds the important position of Train Master of the Petaluma and Santa Rosa Electric R. R. The candidate is a native of Santa Rosa, where he has resided for 35 years. He was elected City Treasurer of that city in 1896 and again in 1898. For the past 15 years he has been an employee of the Electric Road, part of that time he was a resident of Petaluma. His head quarters were moved to Sebastopol where he has since resided. Few men enjoy a wider acquaintance throughout the countyyy.

"Jack's" friends all realize that he is abundantly qualified to direct the important duties of the office to which he is an aspirant. He is making an agressive campaign, and he promises an efficient, courteous and economical administration if he is elected.

EASTERN STARS SCINTILLATE BRIGHTLY

There were eighteen outside visitors at Valley of the Moon chapter's meeting last Thursday week and Grand Matron Shellhammer paid an official visit of inspection to the Lodge. It was a decided tribute to the local office holders as the work was reviewed and complimented by the visiting dignitary.

The evening was arranged by chairman Mattie Goodman who had charge of the decorations and also the refreshments. The banquet room was most effectively set off with pink hydrangea, Shasta daisies and asparagus fern. Pink and white ice cream, delicious cake and candy were enjoyed by all present. A pleasing feature of the evening was the singing of Mrs. Josie Munk of Napa, sister-in-law of our local glove man. District Deputy Maud Matthews was also among the visiting delegation.

PHIL VARNER, CANDIDATE FOR TAX COLLECTOR HERE

Phil Varner, candidate for Tax Collector was in town Wednesday and was warmly greeted by many supporters down this way who are ardently boosting him for the office. Mr. Varner is a man of mature judgment and his experience in official life will serve him well in the conduct of the important duties of tax collector of Sonoma county.

A whirlwind struck the E. T. Casson place last Wednesday, lifted a 9 ft. wire fence up and carried it away, moved big feed bins and did other freakish damage. The disturbance was local and not reported in any other section of the valley. Fortunately the fine stock on the Casson chicken ranch did not suffer any harm.

DEATH OF A MOTHER

Mrs. Elizabeth Dillon, mother of Mrs. Lucien Johnson of Verano, passed away at her home in Portland Oregon last week at the age of 70 years. Four years ago she visited her daughter here and was much pleased with Sonoma valley. Of late Mrs. Dillon had been in poor health and her death was not unexpected as she continued to try to do Red Cross work and attend to other duties which eventually overtaxed her strength. She was a prominent Eastern Star woman and her death was much regretted by Lodge members and a wide circle of friends.

BATHERS HAVE THEIR POCKETS GONE THROUGH

Messrs Pailo and Fanoni are out $320 between them as a result of carelessness when they went bathing at Agua Caliente Springs Monday. They left their clothes in charge of a companion, who became interested in something else and neglected to watch the garments. The person who made away with the money had evidently been watching for his chance and cleaned the mens' pockets. The loss was not discovered until the two dressed.

A picnic in which about 40 friends and relatives of the Bish family from Contra Costa county and surrounding country participated was held at Madrone last Sunday and a fine time was enjoyed by this hospitable family and their guests.

YOUNG ROWDIES GIVEN JUST DESERTS

A crowd of San Francisco's prosperous young wage earners motored to Boyes Springs last Sunday and tried to show how they could run things at the swimming tank. The young rowdies were promptly ejected from the baths after being roughly handled by some of our local boys and turned over to special officer W. B. Cause. The officer and Deputy Sheriff Murray brought them to town where they were placed in the lock-up but after giving them a severe lecture, the judge decided that since they were engaged in war work such as ship building and had to be back Monday morning to do their bit, he would be serving the people best by releasing them. The quartette was therefore let go and as their exuberant spirits had been considerably toned down by the experience, they went on their way thoroughly repentant and convinced that they could not get away with "the rough stuff" in Sonoma valley.

Mrs. Vivien Pressy is seeking a divorce from her husband who is in the automobile business in San Francisco claiming that her mother, Mrs. Wells, is forced to support her.

ASKS FAIR DEAL FOR CALIFORNIA WINE MEN

Washington D. C. papers give Congressman Lea a leading mention in writeups concerning pending legislation before Congress on the prohibition question. Says the Washington Times under the big head line, "Asks Fair Deal For California Wine Growers."

Congressman Clarence F. Lea, of California, who made a plea for the wine interests of his State, and Wayne B. Wheeler, general counsel of Anti-Saloon League, who argued that Congress had power to stop the sale of liquor, were the chief witnesses before the Senate Committee on Agriculture in the prohibition hearing today.

"The grape industry is a big one for California, but a small one for this nation," said Congressman Lea before the Senate committee.

"California is doing her war work heroically. Before the other States of this Union should punish us it would be just that the other States should show us they are doing something which we are witholding.

"If prohibition is necessary for this nation, let it be brought about by methods that are fair."

Mr. Lea laid emphasis on the idea that if prohibition was to be accomplished it should not be brought about so suddenly as to ruin the property invested in the wine and grape business.

Mr. Lea opposed the prohibition of the wine business and doubted the wisdom of striking down the beer business. He was asked a number of questions by Senator Norris, who was anxious to know what he thought of prohibiting the use of foodstuffs for making beer.

In response, Mr. Lea called attention to what England had done. He said England has been divided into eight sections and commissions reported on the restriction of liquors in these sections.

"These commissions," said Mr. Lea "reported that it would be detrimental to the best handling of the war to have absolute prohibition, but they are in favor of great restriction."

Mr. Lea drew a broad distinction between manufacture of beer and wine, by reason of the fact foodstuffs do not enter to any large extent into wine.

He called attention to the fact that American barley is being sent abroad to France and England for the manufacture of beer there.

"There is a evertain inconsistence in that," said Mr. Lea.

The money put into the hop business should be considered, said he n any steps toward prohibition.

Contending for fairness in dealng in the wine industry, and no abrupt and sudden action, Mr. Lea said;

JAMES PETRAY CANDIDATE FOR SHERIFF

Jim Petray was born of pioneer parentage in this county and grew to manhood here. He is a big-hearted fellow, fearless in doing right, courteous and accomodating to everyone. He is an active worker in the Red Cross chapter, also a member of the social service committee appointed by the supervisors to care for the poor people of the country.

Mr. Petray has been deputy sheriff and constable at Healdsburg for the past four years, and has been very efficient in performing the duties pertaining to these offices. He is also state fire warden and took an active part in fighting the big forest fires that did so much damage in and around Healdsburg. He was a volunteer in the Spanish-American war, being second lieutenant in his company. For eight years he was connected with Castle Bros. of San Francisco as their agent in the dried fruit business in the northern part of Sonoma county and is well acquainted with abrtion farmers and fruit growers. He solicits the support of the voters of Sonoma county, and he invites all who do not know him to investigaate his character and qualifications.

Mr. and Mrs. Johnson (nee Bish) have moved to Glen Ellen. Mr. Johnson is the well known railroad man on the N. W. P.

Miss Eda Gillan went to San Francisco Monday to visit with friends.

POLITICAL TIMBER AND POLITICAL PLUMS

(a la Medbury)

* * * * *

The woods are full of 'em and they sure are rustling. These candidates now days. Some political timber, saplings, sap heads and everything, including old hickory and other well seasoned stock.

* * * * *

And not one wants to be called a regular stick. They are all regular fellers of course!

* * * * *

"Doc" Staton is a regular beau brummel and being from Analy, of course has an analytic mind which will help some in figuring how to win votes. "Doc" claims he is going to dock somebodys chances of being county Superintendent, so keep your eye on Doc.

* * * * *

When it comes to well seasoned timber there's Nagle. Been recorder and expects to be until he's called higher. He's made more records than any candidate in the bunch, no fooling.

* * * * *

Then there's that handsome Sheriffy looking candidate from Healdsburg, Jim Petray. Douglas Fairbanks aint got nothing on him for looks they say and Jim says he can round 'em up too. Anyone from his burg should be well Heald and that's a prerogative of a sheriff. The Hotel de Petray might sound good to the jail squad. Not as French as the Hotel de Ryan, but it's all a matter of taste, Jim would be serving prunes and Joe would be serving horseradish.

* * * * *

Then there's that handsome Squire from Missouri, Vallandigham out for District attorney. Legal light is right, effulgent from the ground floor up, really would need a dimmer if he was shining up to the voters any harder.

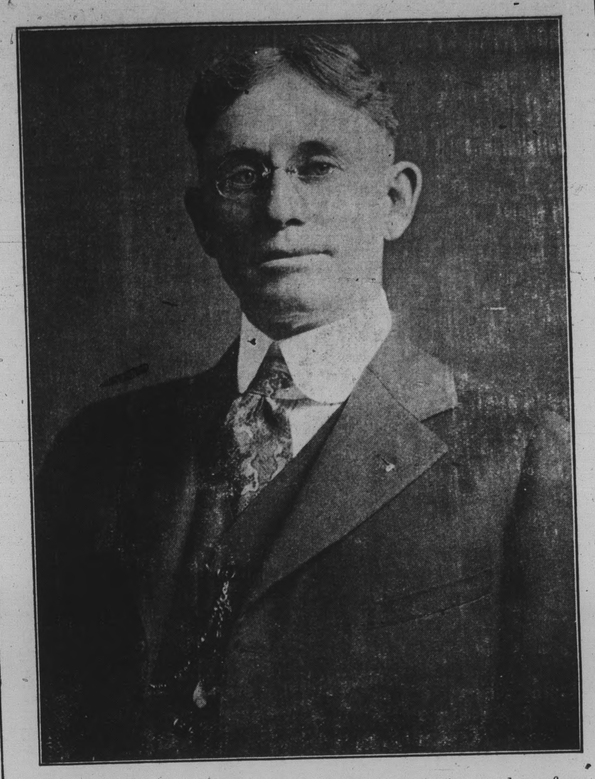
* * * * *

And Woodward for tax-collector, Jack has been connected with an electric railway and says he's on the right track. Going out to win the office, declares the other fellows will be tack collectors for the street department when the votes are counted Can you beat it?

* * * * *

There are a few shy candidates who have not yet presented themselves at our sanctum, but we expect to be able to give them the "once over" soon. So watch these ravings closely each week.

Prof. Nicoletti and family who now reside in Petaluma, were over Sunday and spent the day at Boyes Springs.



O. F. (Doc) Staton of Sebastopol respectfully announces his candidacy for the office of County Superintendent of Schools. Mr. Staton has been Principal of the Sebastopol Grammar school for 8 years and is a man of keen mind and wide experience in school matters both local and county. He has taught in Sonoma County for 20 years served on the Board of Education and was president of the Board for two terms.

Mr. Staton is making an active and dignified campaign and prefers to be listed as an educator rather than a politician. He promises to make the office of Superintendent one of the most important and valuable factors in the upbuilding of good citizenship in Sonoma county and says the place to begin is in our schools where future citizens are in the making.

Mr. Staton will be in Sonoma Monday and hopes to meet many of our voters.

SOLDIER IN BAND WRITES OF TRIP

Camp Merritt,
June 29th, 1918.

Dear Mother and Father:

I am going to write you a letter as there is no censorship while here. I arrived in Camp Merritt at about 1 p. m. Saturday. We left Camp Lewis last Sunday evening. The band was all in one car. There was three of us to the double seat, one slept in the upper berth and two in the lower. I had a fine trip all the way across, and I am feeling fine. They say this camp is about 15 miles from New York. It is a very nice camp and people live all around it here. Some say we will only be here a short time. Might be going over seas at any time. We came through Washington and Idaho. I liked Idaho very much, what I saw of it, as we went through the northern part of it. Then we went through Montana rather wild looking, and not many people, mostly cattle and sheep raising. We then went through Minnesota, and Dakota, a very fine farming country with splendid farms. We crossed the Missouri river at Mobridge a very large river. Then stopped at Milwaukee and they blew the whistles and gave us a great reception, and it is supposed to be a German town. We also went to Chicago and went through the stock yards, and part of the factory district. Then to Fort Wayne, Indiana, a great farming country. I saw lots of lightening along the way. On to Ohio and part of Penn. then to Buffalo, and Elmira some very beautiful scenery in the Allegahney mountains. Every one along the way sure treated us fine. Gave us candy, sandwiches, lemonade, cookies and papers. The Red Cross met us at several towns and gave us candy and different eats. Crowds met us at every stop and we must have had the hand shake of thousands wishing us good luck. The whole country is sure patriotic and it makes one glad to think he is in the army. One will feel better about it when you do come home and if you don't, one will feel they have done their duty. The fellows are all in fine spirits, but even if the war should end by Christmas, we would not get out for six months or more as I think it will take a long time to ship the men back from France and get them mustered out again. I hope you and father are both well. You can write as often as you like as my mail will be forwarded to me wherever I go. Remember me to all friends and neighbors.

Your loving son,
George H. Angove.

Mrs. R. A. Poppe and her daughter MissEmily, contemplate a delightful outing at Lake Tahoe.

VALLANDIGHAM SEEKS DISTRICT ATTORNEYSHIP

Attorney W. N. Vallandigham of Santa Rosa has entered the race for district attorney, and will make an active and vigorous campaign, endeavoring to meet the people of the various sections of the county before the primaries.

The candidate was born in Davis county, Missouri, and came to California, direct to Santa Rosa, with his father, thirty-four years ago. His gradfather was Andrew Shriver, a prominent resident of Lytton and Geyserville section, and he has numerous relatives in northern Sonoma county. He attended the school at Lyttons, latter graduating from one of the foremost colleges of the early California days, and later took his degrees at the old Thayer College, one of the leading educational instiutions of Missouri.

Following his college days the candidate taught school in various places, giving up that vocation to serve his country with the Eighth California Volunteers in the Spanish-American war. During a great part of his enlistment he was acting top sergeant and company clerk. He is now commander of General Joe Wheeler Camp of United Spanish War Veterans, and judge advocate of the Spanish veterans for the state. He was chosen to this important position at the meeting held some months since in Fresno.

After being mustered out of the service Mr. Vallandigham served as deputy county recorder in Umatilla county, Oregon, and later in a similar position in Washington county of that state. He is no stranger to public office, and will administer the affairs of the office he seeks with fairness and impartiality if chosen by the people.

While teaching in Oregon Mr. Vallandigham studied law at the University of Oregon law college, and after admittance to the bar practiced his profession with his father-in-law, Representitave Benton Bowman of Hillsboro, Oregon, one of the stalwart Republicans of that state. During his residence here the candidate has taken a leading at the bar, and is well known all over the county.

Attorney Vallandigham is no stranger to fraternal orders, and aside from his prominence in the Spanish War Veterans' circles he is at the present time foreman of the Yeoman lieutenant, advisor of Rosewood Camp, Woodfan of the World, a member of the Odd Fellows and Knights of Pythias. Attorney Vallandigham promises a vigorous prosecution of all offenders if elected and strict attention to his duties and energetic action in every case presented to him.

Otto Gericke, a prosperous farmer of the Analy district, was in town from Sebastopol Saturday. Mr. Gericke has a fine crop of potatoes and grain this season and is not only doing his bit in that line but has also given his son to the army. Otto Jr. is in training at a Texas cantonment.

RYAN AND MOHR HAVE ACCIDENT

Candidate Joe Ryan and John Mohr had a narrow escape from injury near Melitta when a front wheel came off Mohr's car and the occupants plowed along the road for a considerable distance. They were going slow and no one was injured. Joe travled over the county to the coast this week and met many old friends and a lot of new ones who are going to vote for him Aug. 27th.

The supervisors Monday fixed the rate of compensation for fire-fighters for all time in excess hours, the first six hours not to be paid for, but when more than six hours are required for fighting a fire, all the time so employed, if a reasonable accounting is made, will be paid for at the rate of 35 cents an hour. Traveling to and from a fire will be paid for at the same rate, but the board stipulates that no excessive bills for mileage will be allowed

Only men employed by fire wardens and duly engaged for that purpose will be entitled to pay. The intention is to prevent an army of volunteers to join the fire-fighters and expect pay.

Mrs. M. E. Murphy and Miss Florence have returned home from Napa and Mrs. Murphy was much benefited by her trip.

Mr. and Mrs. Rudolph Wagner visited their folks here over the last week end. Wagner is now at Camp Fremont.

VINEBURG

Mrs. August Figone of San Francisco was the week end guest of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Batto and on her return home was accompanied by Mrs. Arthur Batto and children who will visit city friends for several days.

Messrs Emmet Mullen the popular merchant of El Verano and Angelo Beretta, Trustee of the city of Sonoma, visited this vicinity on Tuesday and registered a number of voters and all along the line it was "three times three" for Joe Ryan the next fearless sheriff of Sonoma county.

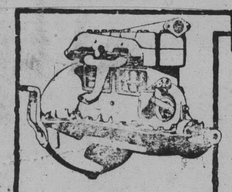
Vineburg is going to form an anti-matrimonial club composed of all the old maids whose sweethearts are somewhere in France, and in the near future will give a grand ball and supper. The menu will consist of sea food, sea weed and crabs and all the indelicacies of the season. The age limit has been fixed by the invitation committee. The gentlemen must be between 18 and 25 years old and no lady under 35 will be admitted, some wise old girls in Vineburg, believe me.

Mr. Edmund Bacher, the well known poultry man on the Hyde tract responded to the call of Uncle Sam on Wednesday and will now uphold the honor of our starry flag. His many friends wish him success and a safe return home.

Chas. Groskopf accompanied by his sister, Mrs. Arthur Batto and children were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Keechler on the Jones ranch on Saturday evening.

Mrs. Thomas Lentz and children have returned to their city home.

The Gundlach-Bundschu wine Co. are shipping large quantities of wine to different parts of the world and we cannot see how anyone with a heart could vote our Golden State "dry" and destroy one of our most profitable industries.



The Ford automobile engine, illustrated here, like all internal combustion engines, requires an oil that holds its full lubricating qualities at cylinder heat, burns clean in the combustion chambers and goes out with exhaust.

"Zerolene is the Best"

—Say leading motor car distributors, because the records of their service departments show that ZEROLENE, correctly refined from selected California asphalt-base crude, gives perfect lubrication with less wear and less carbon deposit.

Most cars are now lubricated with ZEROLENE because their owners have learned through experience that there is no better oil.

ZEROLENE is the correct oil for all types of automobile engines. It is the correct oil for your automobile. Get our lubrication chart showing the correct consistency for your car.

CALENDAR MATTERS OF JULY 22

The demurrer was overruled in the suit of Rowe vs Fetters.

The case of Bigelow vs Blakeman was continued.

Dr. Gobar's many friends and patients will be glad to learn that the report that he was to locate in Petaluma is erroneous. The doctor will remain in Sonoma where he has an excellent practice.

Mr. Edward Bosquit of San Francisco visited his family on Sunday and was the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Batto and enjoyed a motor ride to Napa and Calistoga.

Louis Rouquie was a visitor in the burg the week end and says he feels fine and he looks it.

Phil Varner, candidate for tax collector of Sonoma County, visited this vicinity on Wednesday, accompanied by ex-City Trustee Ranald McDonnell of Sonoma and from what we hear, the gentleman made quite a favorable impression among the voters of this precinct.

We paid a visit to our friend Grover Rubke, the popular station agent at Vineburg on Tuesday afternoon and he politely informed us that it was his busy afternoon. All right Grove, but we think it is a 'chilly' afternoon when you are not busy.

A young lady was feeding her geese
And in water got up to her knees
As she had no gum boots
Or a water proof suit
Has she got a bad cold? I should Sneeze.
